The students of DCHS lead various styles of life. Whether one excells in sparts, the cirts, or academics, each loss on inver motivation to succeed. It is this motivation which allows each individual the chance to express limitelf. The way they choose to express themselves is what makes mem who they are. So, who are you? The student, the arhiete, the class leader, or one who sits quietly and observes? Whoever you are, you add a special rouch to DCHS, inside and Out.

WHO ARE YOU?

3:15 p.m., last bell. Everyone goes home to relax right? Wrong/ Besides leading active lives inside DCHS, many students gain experience through outside employment. Holding a job means more responsibility, less free time, and learning how to deal with people. The end result is an inside feeling of pride, the outside pleasures of extra money, and hopefully a carl

Graduation day was filled with memories and anticipation of things to come. The class of '87 had spent twelve years together learning, laughing, and achieving. The final, and maybe, the greatest achievement happened when they switched their tassels and filed out to join those who had gone before them. It was now time to show the world what they had to offer. Some may obtain fame and fortune, some may lead quiet and simple lives, but each will touch the lives of others.

In future years each will look back and say "1987 was a good year."

HAWAIIAN

ROMANCE

The juniors and seniors that attended the 1987 JUNIOR PROM entered a scene from a Hawaiian sland. In this tropical paradise, they danced the night away Chasen as king and queen were Rob Calvert and Kelly Roberson. The prince and princess were Shonda Black and Craig Powlen.

An afterprom was given by the seniors. Thanks to a committee of senior parents, the late night party was a success. The theme of the afterprom was also Hawaiian, as the American Legion was transformed into a Hawaiian LUAU. The months of planning for both the prom and the afterpromised off as the evening passed. The night of the promibecame just another special memory for both juniors and seniors.

1 Kurr Fours and Melissa enjoy a slow dance 2 Kelly McGreevey and Chad Houston dressed in Howaran aftire greet guests at the entrance 3. The king and queen, Rob Calvert and Kelly Roberson 4. The senior condidates anticipate the unnouncement of king and queen. 5. The prince and princess, Craig Powlen and Shanda Discip. 6. Anixously, the junior candidates await the calling of the winners. 7. Tired couples enjoy the latter pair of the evening.

The Junior Class showed enthusiasm when participating in in-school and out of school activities. Sports were among the most popular Clubs, jobs, and social events were also important to the class of 188

Being new-comers to the high school, the freshmen of DCHS will learn to take on new charanges that face them such as responsibility, leadership, and attenship. To learn all of these, they look to the upperclassmen for guidance and help whenever they need advice. Together they unite to a feeling of friendship and trust that provides freshmen with the conflictence to become future leaders.

Working On The Front Lines

POSITIONS OF GREAT RESPONSIBILITIES HELD BY ADMINISTRATORS AND THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES

The positions held by the prinapal and assistant prinapal were complex and varied in nature. Men holding these responsible posts thust be constantly on the inside of the educational system looking out to see what the community expects of that system and at the same time must look from the outside into the procedures of learning to see that the best of a well rounded education is being offered to the students. Dr. Charles F. Hobbs oversaw the professional staff and encouraged their development of stimulating classrooms.

The assistant prinapal, Mr. J. Bret Lewis had the intricare job of directing and fostering a smooth running extra-curricular program. His duties of direct involvement in promoting constructive student disaptine and attendance were time consuming and called for firmness, tact, and panence.

1. The daily schedule of Assistant Principal J. Bret Lewis is a busy one 2. Principal of DCHS, Dr. Charles F. Hobbs, takes an active role in developing education. 3. Two ever helpful people in the DCHS family are Secretary. The Principal Mrs. Chris Duff and Mrs. Joyce Kenworthy, receptionist. 4. Mr. Wilkom K. Sheridan is business manager of the Delphi Community School Corporation and its arraney is Joseph T. Ives, Jr. 5. A well informed and courteous office straff at the Board of Education Office is composed of Mrs. Carol McGreevey, Mrs. Diana Flora, and Ms. Susan Sabens. 6. Superinten dent of Schools, Dr. Charles T. Skurka, participates in all levels of the educational process. 7. BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES. FRONT. Vice President Thomas B. Freeman, President Dwaine K. Ward Secretary Joe A. Wallace. BACK: George M. Ringer. Raymond F. Zinki, C. James Powlen and Dr. Lowrence W. Stuaffer.

The Board of School Trustees is a body of crizens selected through the democratic process of election to represent the community served by the Delphi Community School Corporation. The superintendent has expertise in all areas of education and is the central coordinator of the local educational system. The business manager handles the complex offairs of the corporation and the school attorney advises in legal matters.

Demonstrating Inside Talents

The height of DCHS is tound in the most unclieur process. Among the haden talents are those at the athletic director is, advoce colors in the nurse and MRS staff. These members not all y put in a hard day, work, but they also help others to grow earn, and majure. The education system runs importify because of these aftern inseen talents hidden beyond the Walls of DCHS.

STUDENT COUNCIL

MAKING CHANGES

Student Council was active throughout the 1986-87 school year. The council occomplished a great deal by keeping n rouch with the student body through the suggestion box, and relaying that information to the faculty and administration. As a result, next. year there will be some changes in the arrendence policy, and student ID's will be issued. The council also set up a food committee that met with the cooks to give student input to the menu. In honor of Student Leadership Week the council sponsored a leadership conference and invited Tom Weatherwax to be the keynore speaker. Homecoming and Valentine flower sales were nicely handled with the quality and eadership that is typical of the Student Council of DCHS

Visual arts, instrumental music, vocal music, and dramatics are all considered a part of the Fine Arts. Students in each of these areas demonstrate patience and creative talent in their specific field of study. Many times, the artist feels frustration or exhaustion in executing a piece of music time and time again or in searching for that creative idea. Each artist, with endurance and persistence expresses a part of himself and ventures one step further in developing an aesthetic auprection.

HOMECOMING

The 1986 Homecoming week was very exciting. On certain days of the week students were asked to dress a particular way. The dress days were Hat and Sunglasses Day. Rainbow Day, Generic Day, and Black and Gold Day.

There was also a class competition which the senior class won. This competition consisted of a banner contest and a spirit contest

Friday night the Deiphi vs. Harrson game was held. The Oracles played a good game although they did not pull off a win. During half time Kelly Roberson was announced the 1986 Homecoming Queen

"BABES IN ARMS"

Babes In Arms" was a delightful musical full of amusing dialogue and character expression. The acting was of morthless quality and the stage sets reflected hours of work. The combined talents of the actors, band, directors, and lighting crew presented two evening performances of quality entertainment. This musical was Mr. Buck's last, and he should be recognized for his excellent work and dedication.

The theme of this year's art show was "Man's History Art". It revolved around the idea of man's progression in the creative arts. From the simplest, most primitive forms of early art, to the elaborate, Romantic art of the Renais sance, and finally to the art which we know today, man has used the arts as a way of expressing his thoughts, moods, feelings, and tragedies. We as patrons, might hope to enlighten and enrich ourselves by enjoying the works of so many great artists.

Annually, the art department at Deiphi Community High School, hosts an art show to encourage an interest in art for the people in the area. Again this year, the art show gave tribute to many well-known artists as well as a great number of talented local artists. The art show also gives the art students at DCHS an apportunity to display their works and talents. The purpose of the art show was not to make artists of us all, but to bring about an interest and enjoyment in the beauty of everyday life.

A friendly smile from Receptionist Teresa Miller and her great-grandparents, Healthcare Center residents Della and Frank Schwortz

As the 1986-87 school year comes to a close, the students of DCH5 begin to reflect on the good times they've shared tagether We the editors of the 1987 ORACLE, have worked hard to capture those spead moments to preserve in the pages of this book Wirhour the dedication and hard work of the staff members this would not have been possible. The staff faced many difficult strugtions and deserve a big "THANK YOU" for respecting the editors' decisions. Mr. Jods Sanders cannot be thanked enough for his concern and undying devotion to the ORACLE Staff - he carried us through! We would like to express our appreciation to the administration and faculty for the moral support and extra help they gave during the year for our advertisers, we hope to provide excellent service in recording the ourstanding businesses of 1987. We would also like to thank Jerry's Photography for their assistance to the photography staff and for providing pictures of marchless quality. To Tri-Kappa we thank you for sending the editors to camp every summer. And finally, to the students of DCHS we offer our rhanks for allowing us to provide a vearbook of the best quality. Without your special raients and achievements there would be no yearbook. To the Seniors we would like to wish you the best of uch and 184 to the underdassmen we hope that next
